What is Hari Raya?

Hari Raya Puasa or 'Aidilfitri' marks the end of the fasting month of Ramadan and the start of a new month on the Islamic calendar, Syawal. It is a celebration of victory after fasting for the whole month of Ramadan.

During this time, Muslims will visit their relatives and friends to seek forgiveness and strengthen bonds.

Traditional clothes such as the songkok, samping, baju kurung are worn that day. Most families will also opt for similar colour themes to add to the celebratory mood of Raya.

Celebration of Aidilfitri

After morning prayers...

Hari Raya Puasa begins with mass prayer gatherings at mosques and open fields in the morning.

After the morning prayers, family members will seek forgiveness from one another. Everyone will congregate at the most senior family member's home to bond and enjoy traditional foods like lontong, ketupat, rendang and a variety of Malay kueh.
